EON REALITY LAUNCHES NEW CAD MODULE AS PART OF ITS
EON PROFESSIONAL SOFTWARE DEVELOPED TOGETHER WITH RIGHT HEMISPHERE

IRVINE, Calif. April 9, 2004 — EON Reality Inc., a leading interactive 3D software provider, announced its new EON CAD module for use in the growing area of real-time visualization for industrial training and marketing use.

"Real-time 3D visualization for industrial and design use is developing rapidly and becoming an important tool in the development process for many large organizations to repurpose the existing 3D assets in new areas. Using EON based real-time simulations coupled with the new EON Professional CAD module and EON's scalability from web-deployment to immersive stereoscopic 3D will significantly simplify using existing CAD models for interactive 3D applications," stated Mats W. Johansson, President of EON Reality.

“Right Hemisphere is pleased to be partnering with EON Reality to provide complete end to end CAD repurposing system. EON Reality’s Professional suite of tools offer a powerful range of visualization and simulation solutions that create clear value-add for CAD data beyond the engineering environment for applications in training, support and sales,” said Michael Lynch, CEO of Right Hemisphere.

ABOUT Right Hemisphere

Right Hemisphere is the leading provider of visual communication solutions. Right Hemisphere enables non-engineering staff to easily reuse engineering data in visual communication solutions for training, documentation, marketing and support. The company’s Deep Server software replaces expensive manual processes with automated, open, and scalable solutions that make high-impact interactive 2D and 3D content an affordable reality for communicating technical information, marketing highlights or complex support procedures. Enterprises can now efficiently capitalize on investments in engineering design to increase sales, cut documentation, support and training costs, and speed products to market.
